DOYLE DEACTIVATES EMERGENCY OPERATION CENTER

Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle deactivated the Emergency Operation Center (E.O.C) at 6:30 p.m. today as operations returned to normal in the wake of the terrorist attacks at the World Trade Center and Pentagon.

The Greater Rochester International Airport will remain closed until at least noon on Wednesday, September 12, 2001. Passengers who are scheduled on departing flights on Wednesday are encouraged to confirm their flight information with their airline prior to leaving for the airport.

In addition, Doyle announced that all County office buildings will be open for business on Wednesday, September 12, 2001.
